Agenda

#WPNinjaCH

- The macOS Management Challenge
- Leveraging Microsoft Graph API
- IntuneBrew
- Resources & Getting Started
- Q&A

Key takeaways:

- Managing macOS apps? Easier than you think.
- With Graph API, everything gets easier.

The macOS Management Challenge

The macOS Management Challenge

#WPNinjaCH

- Increasing adoption of macOS in enterprise environments
- Time-consuming manual app packaging and uploading
- Difficulty maintaining app versions, updates and metadata

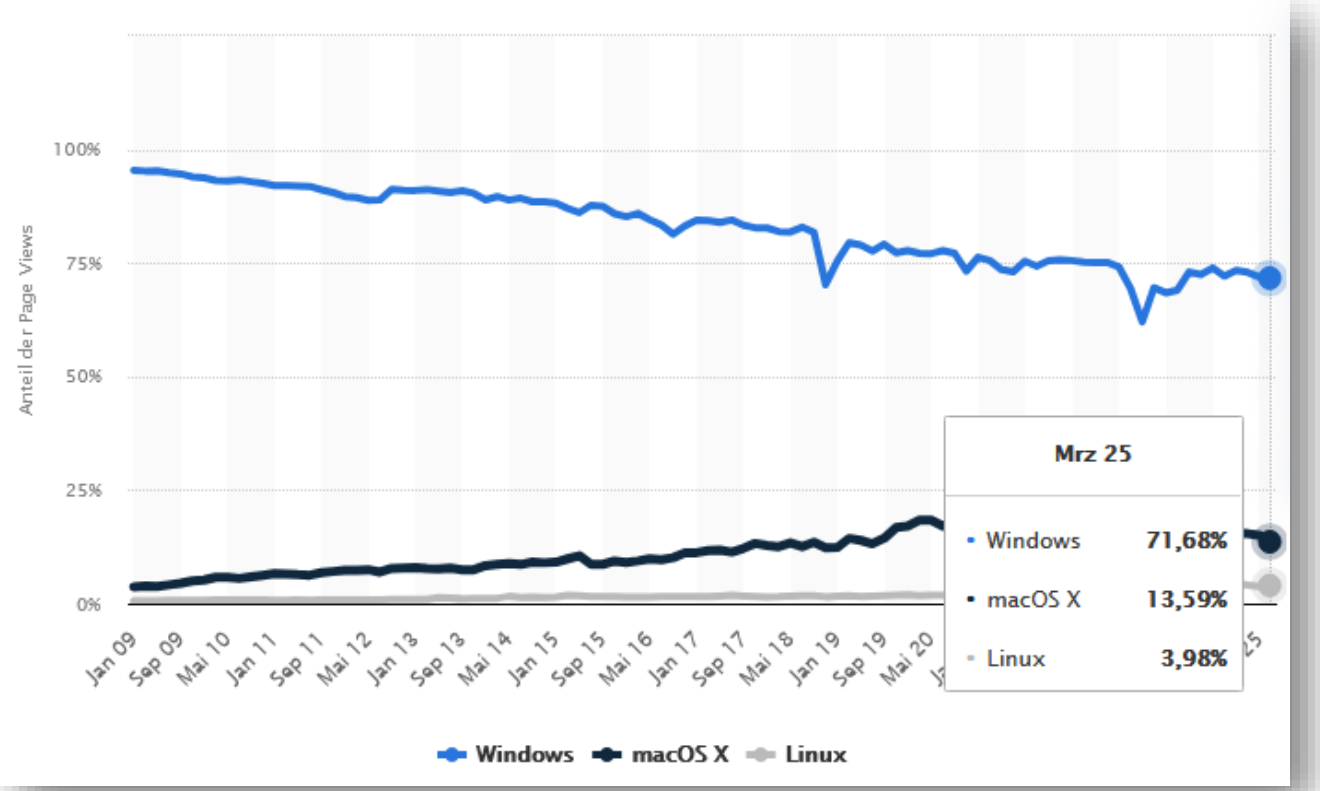
Current State of macOS in Intune

#WPNinjaCH

- Native support for macOS in Intune has improved
- Still requires significant manual effort for app management
- Limited automation capabilities through the portal
- Challenging to maintain at scale
- Opportunity for API-driven automation

What about Apps?



Leveraging Microsoft Graph API

Simplifying Intune Management with Graph API

#WPNinjaCH

- Graph API provides programmatic access to Intune resources
- Automate app creation, versioning, and assignments
- Secure authentication options (certificates, client secrets, interactive)
- Enables integration with custom tools and scripts

IntuneBrew

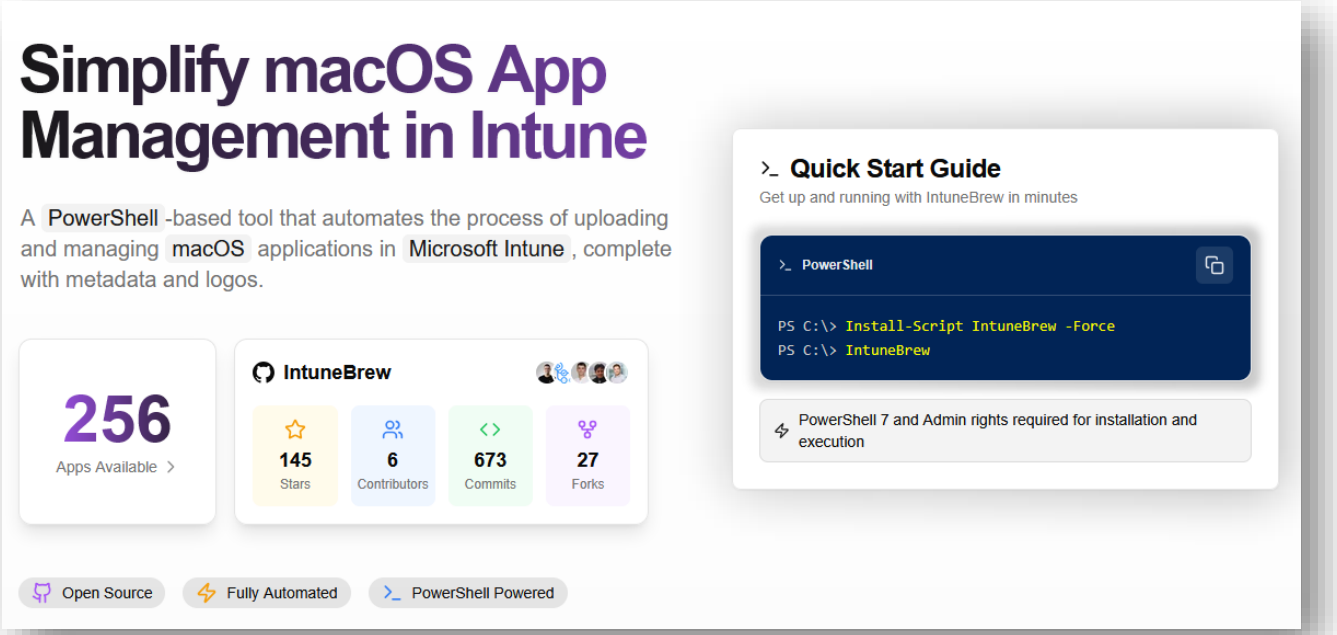
Homebrew meets Intune

- IntuneBrew PowerShell
- IntuneBrew Webportal

What is IntuneBrew?

#WPNinjaCH

- PowerShell-based tool for macOS app deployment automation
- Uses Homebrew cask info and GitHub JSON manifests
- Automates download, packaging, encryption, and upload to Intune
- Supports .dmg and .pkg macOS installers
- Open source and community-driven project



IntuneBrew Highlights

#WPNinjaCH

- Automated app uploads to Microsoft Intune
- Supports both .dmg and .pkg files
- Automatic version checking and updates
- Automatic app icon integration
- Progress tracking for large file uploads
- Secure authentication with Microsoft Graph API
- Bulk upload and retry mechanisms
- Assignment copying and management
